Office Being Sought:

You will have three minutes to address these four topics during your live interview:

1. Considering the different styles of leadership—autocratic, democratic, laissez-faire, to name three—which style would you say best reflects your style, and why?
2. Describe any experiences you have had that would assist you with performing the responsibilities of being a regional officer in general or for the specific office you are seeking.
3. What ideas do you have for the Illinois Region in the upcoming year to maintain and improve its effectiveness throughout the Region?
4. Why do you want to be an officer for the Illinois Region and are you willing to devote the time needed to be an effective member of the regional officer team?
